Building to Be Erected at Brand and Windsor Road For Harry Gerson

Ground was broken this morning for a $150,000 motion picture theatre at the north-east corner of Brand boulevard and Windsor road. This newest link in the chain of Glendale show-houses will accommodate nearly 1000 people and will be beautifully fitted out, according to Harry Gerson, for whom it is being erected.

Barker & Davis of Pasadena are the contractors. The theatre will be operating by June 1, according to present plans. A. P. Offutt is the owner of the property.

It will be modern in every respect, the plans show, and the interior decorations, when announced, will be something entirely novel, Mr. Gerson states. The exterior will be pressed brick with ornamental finish.

Clean Pictures The theatre will show the best pictures, according to its builder, whose aim is to make it a neighborhood showhouse, where the whole family may come. The leasing, construction and financing of the structure were handled by G. O. Russell of Gilhuly & Russell, realtors, 600 South Brand boulevard.

There will be stores on either side of the main entrance, the plans show. The location was selected by Mr. Gerson because he believes it to be a coming business section, thickly populated and in need of such an institution.

Well Known Here Harry Gerson has been with West Coast Theatres, Inc., for a number of years and was formerly manager of the T. D. & L. theatre on North Brand boulevard. Later he was associated with the management of the Raymond theatre in Pasadena. He is well known in Glendale.

"There is room in this city for such a theatre," Mr. Gerson said this morning, as he stood on the corner where ground was being broken for his showhouse. "I selected this city and this particular location after much investigation. I am certain I will not regret my decision to build a theatre here, to cater to the best neighborhood trade. I know Glendale and know they want the best. That I plan to provide."

Film Actress, Wealthy Sportsman Exonerated

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 23.—Irene Dalton, film actress, and John R. Owens, wealthy sportsman, were free today of Mann act charges as federal officials are convinced here. In a decision holding that no evidence of immorality had been shown to warrant prosecution, United States Commissioner Turney refused to order the removal of Miss Dalton and Owens to Toledo, where they are under federal indictment on Mann act accusations.

BANDITS GET $15,000

BRISTOW, Okla., Jan. 23.—Two men were wounded and a trio of bandits escaped with more than $15,000 when they held up the American National bank at Bristow this morning.

LATEST NEWS

MUSCLE SHOALS BILL SIDE-TRACKED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—A special resolution sending the Underwood Muscle Shoals bill to conference was adopted today by the House rules committee, but because of the general desire to end consideration of and pass the appropriation bills, the Muscle Shoals measure may be permitted to go over until next week.

DISABLED WORKERS' BILL SIGNED

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 23.—Governor Richardson today signed assembly bill 64, an emergency appropriation measure, providing $16,270 for the promotion or rehabilitation of persons disabled in industry. The state appropriation will enable the state to secure federal aid in the rehabilitation work.

COUNTY FLOOD CONTROL PROCEEDS

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 23.—Work on the $35,000,000 county flood control program will go forward at once, it was announced today by county officials, following their receipt of information that the general land office had approved applications for right of way across federal lands necessary to the big project.

To Retire

J. C. SHERER, city treasurer of Glendale, formerly city clerk, and pioneer resident, who announces he will not be a candidate for re-election.

J. C. SHERER TO QUIT CITY POSITION

Pioneer Official Announces He Will Not Run for Glendale Treasurer

John C. Sherer, pioneer Glendale resident and city treasurer for many years, today announced that he will not be a candidate for re-election on April 14.

"I have served the city for over ten years, first as city clerk and then as city treasurer. Now I am going to retire to my home at Somerset farm and lead a more leisurely life. Retire? No, I wouldn't call it that. I am not going to retire, exactly. I have a lot of things to do down there on that farm. I will read a lot, and I may write some. At any rate, I am definitely out of politics in Glendale upon the expiration of my present term."

Writes City's History

Mr. Sherer lives at 717 South Verdugo road, where he has lived continuously since he first came to Glendale in 1883. He is best known as the author of a monumental two-volume history of Glendale, and enjoys the distinction of having founded the Old Settlers' association, which for twenty years has held annual reunions.

A. J. Van Wie, city clerk, states that he will be a candidate for re-election. Besides his position and that of the city treasurer, the terms of all five councilmen expire in April. The three councilmanic candidates receiving the highest number of votes at the election will serve for four years, according to the city charter, while the remaining two will serve for two years. Both the city clerk and the city treasurer will serve for four years.

Most Reside in City All candidates for office must be registered voters of the city of Glendale, according to the charter. This means that no one residing in Casa Verdugo or any place outside the city limits can be a candidate. Nominations are made by petition, and the petition must be circulated by an elector. Such a petition must contain the names of at least 1 per cent of the registered voters. As there are

RESIDENTS OF CITY NAME NOMINEES

List of People's Candidates For Councilmen Grows As Election Nears

The principles upon which the nation is founded—government of the people, for the people, by the people—is being adequately expressed in Glendale in the naming of candidates for the five councilmanic positions to be filled at the municipal election next April.

The list of nominees suggested by the people of Glendale, through the columns of The Glendale Evening News, look like a "Who's Who" of the city. Men and women prominent in social circles, business and civic undertakings, who are known to have the interest at heart and who are known to believe in a bigger and better community, have been named by the people as their nominations for the City Council.

The long list continues to grow, seventeen names being added today, with only two withdrawals. There are now eighty-six mentioned as probable candidates.

Harrison Withdraws

M. P. Harrison, of 323 North Maryland avenue, in a letter to A. T. Cowan, publisher of The Glendale Evening News, announces his withdrawal, and says: "I would like to have you drop my name from the list of candidates for city councilmen. I could not take the office under any consideration. I wish to thank my friends for suggesting my name."

"I am sure that we as a city appreciate the fact that they are not a small town any more but a large city. To run our city government we must elect Christian men of large experience. When we find men of this caliber, I will throw off my coat and help elect them."

W. S. Traphagen, of 645 North Louise street, in announcing his withdrawal, writes: "I am not a candidate for councilman, and request that my name be withdrawn from the list of candidates named by the people."

Blank Appears Daily

Each day there appears in this newspaper a blank form on which Glendale residents are invited to write the names of citizens who they believe are fitted for service on the City Council. Five candidates are to be elected next April.

When any person nominated receives fifty or more nominations, his or her picture and a brief biography will be published in The Glendale Evening News.

Five nominations is the limit any one person is permitted to (Turn to page 10, col. 4)

Shooting of Rich Auto Maker's Son Mystery

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 23.—While John C. Thomas, said to be the son of E. R. Thomas, retired automobile manufacturer of Buffalo, N. Y., who was mysteriously shot in the head yesterday, continued to battle for his life at the Hollywood hospital today, police detectives investigated the mystery shooting to determine who fired the shot.

Mrs. Mildred Thomas, the wife, told the police that her husband had been drinking since New Year's and that yesterday he told him to leave until he could stay sober. This, she said, enraged her husband and he threatened her life and said he would commit suicide.

Chinese Bury Hatchet For New Year's Frolic

SHANGHAI, Jan. 23.—This harassed city which has served as a ring for battling Chinese for years, today was enjoying a respite brought by Chinese New Year's. A truce was arranged for the important holiday and foreign marines have been withdrawn.

Franco-American Debt Speech Denied Public

PARIS, Jan. 23.—The Chamber of Deputies, by a vote of 290 to 224, rejected today a motion to post on bulletin boards copies of Deputy Marin's speech on the Franco-American debt.

CRUDE OILS RISE

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 23.—The Joseph Seep Co., purchasing agents for the Standard Oil Co., today announced increases of from 10 to 25 cents a barrel for crude oils in this section.

Stork Delivers 2 Sets Twins, 2 Boys, 2 Girls

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Two sets of twins—two boys and two girls—were born today to Mrs. Catherine Kelly at her home in Brooklyn. The heaviest of the babies weighed three pounds, the lightest two and a quarter pounds. Three were said by doctors to be healthy and strong, while doubt was expressed as to the fourth's fate. The mother's condition is excellent.

SPEEDERS HIT BY NEW BILL ON CRIME

Measure Would Make Motor Crash Perpetrators Homicide Prospects

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 23.—Among 400 bills tossed in the hoppers today by the Senate and Assembly of the forty-sixth California Legislature most important, perhaps, is one fostered by Chief Deputy Byron R. Fitts of the Los Angeles district attorney's office and offered by Assemblyman Frank C. Weller, Glendale. It provides punishment for a new crime—negligent homicide—by dealing with the ever increasing number of motor crash deaths. It is particularly directed at the hit and run driver, the speeder, and others who escape penalties for manslaughter, according to Fitts.

According to the bill the crime of negligent homicide shall be included in every charge of manslaughter—this with a view of giving juries discretion in convicting the reckless, death-dealing motorist. The penalties asked are imprisonment for not more than two years in the county jail or not more than five in the state's prison or by a fine not exceeding $1000 or both.

Weller Busy

Assemblyman Weller also is introducing a group of twelve bills today providing procedure for the establishment of municipal courts at the request of Kimball Fletcher, representing the Los Angeles County Bar association. It particularly affects Los Angeles as well as other cities with more than 40,000 population according to the 1920 census. These enabling measures are necessary to make operative the initiative act adopted by the people last November, creating municipal courts, Weller states.

Byron Fitts, former state commander of the American Legion, also acting as adviser for the Veterans' program being offered today in three bills introduced by Assemblyman Byron Walters, San Diego and twenty-three former service men in the lower House.

One measure will submit a $10,000 bond issue to the people next year to keep the Los Angeles veterans' welfare board funds and it is stated this will incur no cost to the state, as beneficiaries under the former bond issue, as well as that proposed will pay the carrying charges.

Bears Drubbed Again By Bulls In Wall Street

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Wall street bears received another drubbing at the hands of the bulls today when prices of active industrial stocks jumped from 3 to 15 points and in some cases advancing from 1 to 4 1/2 points between sales. Cast Iron Pipe was the star performer, replacing U. S. Steel as the leader in the rally; but American sugar, which jumped from 63 1/2 to 68 between sales and completed a gain of 20 points since last Friday, was a strong contender for second honors.

Worthington Pump, Radio corporation, Universal Pipe, Pacific Oil, American Can and Baldwin Locomotive were prominent in the forward movement of industrial stocks. Continental Insurance gained 7 points.

Sharp advances in grain prices and in the quotations for sterling exchange, the highest since 1915, were important factors in the movement of stocks.

HIGHWAY NINE BODY SEEN FAILURE

Southern California Solons So Express Opinion on Preliminary Report

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 23.—California's highway committee of nine has failed in views expressed here today by Southern California solons who were apprised of the preliminary report. And the reason why may be told in a four-line summary, as follows: Thirteen Southern California counties have—

Motor registration of 57 per cent of the automobile traffic. Approximately 50 per cent of the entire state's population. 1923 census estimate 40 per cent of the population.

New highways only 40 per cent of recommended construction. The report, signed by eight members, says the latter caused "grave concern." It is the reason that E. E. East, engineer for the Automobile Club of Southern California, did not sign the report which:

1. Increased the gasoline tax. 2. Increased the license plate tax. 3. Provided a graduated weight tax. 4. Submission of $25,000,000 bond issue at the next election.

The latter would be for what is known as primary highway system, elimination of grade crossings and construction of major bridges. Of this sum the south would get less than 40 per cent, although contributing more heavily to taxes.

Southern Counties Share Of 2,000 miles requested to be made state highways and for which the future cost of improvement, it is estimated by the report, would cost $117,000,000 there are but 951 miles in thirteen southern counties to 2050 miles in the northern forty-five counties.

For the benefit of the committee there are several sound recommendations including the early completion of the highways from Southern California to the Arizona and Mexican lines, and the completion of other interstate and transcontinental trunk lines.

BADLY BURNED IN GAS EXPLOSION

J. A. Williams Taken to Hospital as Result of Fire in Home

J. A. Williams of 511 North Isabel street was seriously burned when gas exploded in his kitchen at 11:35 o'clock this morning, setting fire to the house. Apparatus from station 1 of the Glendale fire department, in charge of Chief A. L. Lankford, answered the call. When they arrived they found the rear of the house in flames. Chemicals were used and the blaze was extinguished at a damage estimated at $300.

Chief Lankford found Mr. Williams staggering around, dazed, moaning with pain, and drove him to the Glendale hospital, where examination by Dr. C. Hamer revealed that he had sustained second and third degree burns on the left arm and leg, with first degree burns on the face. It is believed that he will recover.

CITIZENS SUBSCRIBE TO FUND FOR RADIO

Glendale People Will See To It That Fire Department Receives Good Outfit; What Will You Give?

Subscription To Radio Fund For Fire Department Employees

I will give the sum of $..... to the fund being raised through The Glendale Evening News for the purpose of buying a radio outfit for the employees of the Glendale fire department.

NAME ..... ADDRESS ..... Tear out and mail to The Glendale Evening News, 139 South Brand, Glendale.

Glendaleans are rallying to the aid of the firemen. The men employed by the city to protect property and lives when conflagrations threaten to sweep Glendale are being remembered by the citizens of Glendale and their idle hours are to be made happier by a radio receiving set.

Acting upon the suggestion of a reader, who requested that his name be withheld, The Glendale Evening News announced it would receive funds for the purchase of a radio receiving set for the firemen. Since the initial announcement was made, Glendaleans are responding liberally, and many have called at the office of The Glendale Evening News at 139 South Brand boulevard, to contribute their share.

Committee To Act

When sufficient funds have been received to purchase a set, the presidents of the various service clubs of Glendale will be asked to become members of a purchasing committee and select the best set available.

Elsewhere in The Glendale Evening News today appears the list of subscribers to the fund. The publisher of this newspaper started the fund with a donation of $10. The members of the Glendale Advancement association added $18.

Started by Reader

The suggestion that a radio be provided for the fire department boys was first made in a communication to the publisher of The Glendale Evening News. The writer asked that his name not be published. His communication follows:

"I believe you are the one that everyone calls to help in every emergency or philanthropic work, so I thought perhaps you would be interested in helping to get a radio set for the fire station, thus not waiting for the boys to lose their lives before showing our appreciation of their services in protecting our homes. About two months ago a fireman got his hand badly burned and blood poison set in, and he had a very serious and painful time. As some of the men have to be on duty every Sunday, it would be a fine thing if they had a radio set to hear the sermons and music, and I'm sure all churches would be willing to give a little towards purchasing one. You probably know that they do not get very high salaries, and those who do not have to pay rent are paying for a home or have

Oil Swindler Suspect Held for Chicago Law

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 23.—Armed with extradition papers Chicago detectives were expected to arrive here Sunday to return to the eastern city Raymond J. Bischoff, alleged head of a $2,000,000 oil swindle gang, who was arrested in his home here yesterday after a three years' search. Bischoff will probably be returned to Chicago immediately as he has announced he would not fight extradition. Bischoff denied he was guilty of any wrongdoing and hinted at a conspiracy against him.

SERVES NOTICE OBLIGATIONS CANNOT BE CANCELLED

Senator Borah Speaks for Administration, Asserting Nation Not Shylock

By GEORGE R. HOLMES For International News Service. WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—

Senator William E. Borah spoke for the administration when he sharply "called" France for her war debt attitude and served notice that the American government will not entertain any proposition aimed at cancellation or scaling down the $4,000,000,000 France borrowed from the United States treasury on demand notes during the war.

Inquiry today in the highest government quarters, the White House, state and treasury departments, revealed that the views so dramatically expressed by the chairman of the foreign relations committee are endorsed with an unanimity almost unparalleled in matters affecting international relations.

It only remained for the speech of M. Marin, in the French Chamber on Wednesday, to bring the long smoldering resentment to Congress to the flaming stage. M. Marin described the United States as a Shylock and pleaded France's greater sacrifices in life as one reason why she should not be called upon to pay.

French Plan Increase Of Sea-Coast Defense

PARIS, Jan. 23.—The French cabinet at a meeting of the cabinet today authorized the minister of the navy to draw up plans to increase the French sea-coast defense.

DECLINES DUEL

PLAYERS SEEN IN ROLLICKING FARCE

'Love Laughs' at Playhouse With Roar and Go of Understanding Art

"Love Laughs," presented with a roar and a go by the Dobinson Players at the Playhouse this week, is a comedy with undercurrents of stark truth beneath its inundating laughter. Not only is the idea of propinquity as conducive to love both proved and disproved, to the mirth of everyone, but there is a solemnly funny note struck when William H. Stephens as Montgomery Kent, young lover, swiftly and almost imperceptibly transfers his moon-struck affections from one girl to another. As the typical weathercock lover, enacted all too seldom on the stage, he is not only funny, but true to life.

Another wistful truth peered beneath the comic lines of the play in the triumph of Beverly Phillips' youth, beauty and charm over her disconcerting handicap—that of pestering a lover with her annoyingly juvenile conception of a mind-over-matter scheme of metaphysics. Beverly's philosophy teaches that if the young lady be lovely and young and palpitant enough, her ideas—no matter how annoying—will be of secondary or even negligible import to a love-blind suitor.

Comedy Vendors
Mary Isabelle Alpaugh as Beverly Phillips accomplished a rare identification with the character, evoking laughter at all times tempered by a sort of quick, wistful after-silence on the part of the audience.

Mary Worth as the other girl, deepens her hold on Glendale audiences. One senses that she understands the technique of illusion. Her shading and coloring of a word, a phrase, a gesture; her subtle pauses, her stirring glances and quickening movements, shed a lingering magic over the scenes she played in. Small and dark-haired, she has glow, sympathy and an undeniable uniqueness.

Joseph McManus as the dominant doctor, Richard Ehlers, Arthur Lovejoy, Eugenia Florence and Harry J. Glazier contribute to make "Love Laughs" a rich, thoughtful, and ticklish comedy in its enactment.

Seventy-five persons attended the monthly dinner meeting of Verdugo Hills Post No. 288, American Legion, held at the La Crescenta schoolhouse Wednesday, reports A. G. Baron, commander of the post. As an aftermath of the meeting, an auxiliary to Post No. 288 will be formed within the next few days. Inspiration for the formation of an auxiliary came in the address delivered by Mrs. Carol Marks, post department president of the auxiliary.

Among the distinguished guests present were: Van W. Bishop, chief de gare of the "40 and 8" of Los Angeles; William Nost, commander of the county interpost council; William Regelin, president of the Los Angeles Legion Luncheon club; J. A. Bishop, of the "40 and 8," and Mrs. James McBryde, past president of the Glendale auxiliary.

It was reported at the meeting that the post is about ready to proceed with building a new clubhouse, the sum of $1,000 being on hand for the purchase of lots, and sufficient funds for the building.

The next dance to be given by the post will be at Verdugo City on February 11. Don Urquhart is chairman of the dance committee.

Women's Label League Plans Valentine Dance

Plans for a Valentine masquerade dance to be held at the Labor hall, 108 North Brand boulevard, on Saturday night, February 14, were completed yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the Women's Label league held at 108 North Brand boulevard. Mrs. H. H. Black, vice-president, is chairman of the entertainment committee and will be assisted by Mrs. A. A. Stoner and Mrs. W. W. Stoner. Those planning to attend the dance are requested to wear costumes and prizes will be awarded for the best costumes. Refreshments will be served. Mrs. J. D. Hall, president, directed the business meeting. An invitation has been extended to the Pasadena Label league members to attend.

Evening News Sunset Club Social Planned

Mrs. Juliana Hayes of 1214 South Maryland will be hostess tomorrow afternoon at an informal social meeting for members of The Glendale Evening News Sunset club. The affair will celebrate Mrs. Hayes' birthday. Assisting her will be her daughter, Mrs. W. R. Alexander. Mrs. Hayes has invited her guests from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Dr. Anderson to Talk At Venice Polytechnic

Dr. John Anderson of Glendale will lecture February 5, at the Venice Polytechnic High school on problems of boys from 15 years old up. Dr. Anderson spoke two years ago at the Venice school.

Joins Board

DR. J. E. ECKLES, who has been added to the advisory board of the Gibraltar Finance corporation.

Another valuable addition has just been made to the advisory board of the Gibraltar Finance corporation, 218 South Brand, in the selection of Dr. J. E. Eckles, one of the leading physicians and surgeons of Glendale, whose suite of offices is located at 125 1/2 North Brand.

Dr. Eckles, who is a beautiful home at 328 North Orange street, has conducted his medical and surgical practice for the past ten years in Glendale. He came here direct from his studies at the College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons, in Los Angeles, from both the osteopathic and medical branches of which he was graduated. For several years he conducted an office in Casa Verdugo, and from there moved to the attractive suite of offices he now occupies.

Several pieces of property are owned in Glendale by Dr. Eckles, whose experience in realty and general business has equipped him to efficiently handle his new duties. Dr. Eckles is a member of the Oakmont Country club, the Lions club, the Masonic lodge, the Elks lodge, the Casa Verdugo Methodist church, the Physician's club, and the Hermosa Beach Sand and Surf club.

BURBANK NEWS

BURBANK, Jan. 23.—The entire San Fernando valley has placed itself back by this city to acquire the U. of C. Southern branch. A resolution was adopted to this effect at a recent meeting of the executive committee of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of the valley in session at Van Nuys. Manager J. W. Charleville of the Burbank chamber and L. H. Boydston, a prominent resident, were present as representatives.

The action taken is declared significant, as the association is composed of eighteen different communities and every community was represented at the meeting with the exception of San Fernando. While San Fernando has a site to offer, it is not pushing it very strenuously, according to Mr. Charleville, and its representative at the meeting of the site committee last week created a laugh, when, after presenting the case of his community, he went so far as to intimate that Burbank had the best site of all and that if San Fernando did not get it he hoped that Burbank would be selected.

A city mother is needed in Burbank, to look after the interests of delinquent girls, declared Mrs. Beatrice C. George, Pasadena city mother, in an address before the Congregational Women's club.

That public dance halls are a great menace if not rightly conducted, and that no girl should be allowed to go to these gatherings unless properly chaperoned or escorted, Mrs. George declared. Many men of low character go to these halls and are a great menace to the young, innocent girls who do not know their peril. In Pasadena, she said, the city police woman looks after the dance halls and such an officer is desirable in every city, the speaker contended.

R. O. Church and J. D. Radcliff have returned from Palm Springs where they went to spend a few days to recuperate from minor illness. Both are reported improved by the outing and drives about the Palm Springs section.

Ore Deposits Reached As Low As 4300 Feet

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 23.—Proof that ore bodies in the Mother Lode district go down to enormous depths is found in the shaft of the Plymouth Consolidated mine in Amador county which now is down 4300 feet, with a large ore body developed at the 4000-foot level.

Similar reports from Grass Valley are made regarding the North Star and Empire mines, among the oldest in California, in which it is reported that vein material uncovered at a 3600-foot level proves existence of deep-seated ore bodies.

QUERY ANSWERED ON INCOME TAXES

Collector Goodcell Explains How to List Losses For Year 1923

Many taxpayers have made inquiry of Collector of Internal Revenue Rex B. Goodcell as to the manner in which they may take credit for net losses sustained in 1923 upon their income tax return for the year 1924 under the Revenue act of 1924.

Collector Goodcell, in response to these inquiries yesterday said that the provision of the Revenue act of 1924, to the effect that a taxpayer seeking to obtain credit for a net loss should file a claim with his return for the year in which the loss is to be credited, does not refer to a formal claim but merely to an explanatory statement to be attached to his return.

"The net loss," he explained, "in such case should be treated as an ordinary deduction in the return for the current year and the tax should be determined on the net income computed with the benefit of this deduction. A schedule should be attached to the return, showing that the net loss sustained during the prior year has been determined in accordance with the regulations."

Another inquiry received was as to whether a taxpayer who has suffered a net loss may file a claim with the commissioner at any time after such net loss is established and if so, whether he will be furnished with a certificate of his net loss which will serve as an authorization for the deduction of this net loss in a subsequent return.

"Taxpayers are advised that no procedure for issuing such a certificate has been adopted," the collector said. "In every case the net loss should be claimed when the return for the subsequent year is filed, and the correctness of the deduction will be determined in the course of an audit of that return. In the event, however, that a taxpayer has failed to claim a deduction for a net loss allowed under Section 206 at the time that his return was filed, a claim should be filed on Form 843."

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 23.—A move to have safety subways at all school crossings constructed with money to be donated by motorists and pedestrians was started by Harold L. Arnold. According to plans announced, a campaign will be launched to collect the money by popular subscription.

The bout will be a decision, and the entire gate receipts will go toward a fund for local crippled children. Governor Groesbeck has sanctioned the bout.

COMMENT by GIL A. COWAN

One good deed brings forth another. The California Legislature has before its judiciary committee in the way of a bill introduced by Assemblyman A. C. Finney of Brawley the El Centro American Legion post's suggestion that Armistice Day be made a school holiday.

With Frank C. Weller, a former service man presiding over the committee, and a half dozen other veterans among those who will almost unanimously vote for its passage the bill raised a fine point. It was discovered that in addition to changing the political code it would be necessary to change the civil code and code of civil procedure.

Homer Spence, Alameda American Legion member, and Frank Coombs, father of State Commander Nathan Coombs, of the legion, both spoke to the point of once and for all putting all holidays in the political code only, and then amending the others to read that all holidays would be found in the one book. This fine spirit of the Assembly judiciary committee—and it is not alone in its endeavor to simplify the laws—has caused Assemblyman Finney some little additional work, but in years to come the state will be saved many dollars in the useless amendment of two or three codes to make one holiday.

To the layman there isn't anything in this sidelight to get excited over, perhaps, but Mr. Finney in offering these changes at the request of his fellow veterans will save the state more than his salary amounts to for the present session. That's good sense.

Senator E. H. Christian addressed members of the Sacramento post at their weekly American Legion luncheon. He made some trite remarks about veterans taking an interest in civic affairs and politics.

He advocated more young men, who have the vigor to fight for ideals, to run for office. Although he was only a "back" private, Christian has graduated from the Assembly to Senate in five years' time. Young men have higher ideals, he believes. They are not professional politicians, as a rule. And they think for themselves.

Yes, without principle, a professional politician, who has entangling alliances, be he young or old, is not going to get very far, methinks.

Senator A. Burlingame Johnson of Pasadena has raised his voice in praise for the early days he spent on the farm during debate on the resolution petitioning California's representatives to Congress not to include farm children in Child Labor laws, should the twentieth amendment be ratified by two-thirds of the states. Action was deferred because it was feared that it might be mistaken for criticism of the Child Labor act.

But there were many in the Senate chamber who concurred in the thought of Senator Johnson that the happiest days were those spent in the country, attending to the chores and building a physical body by the sweat of the brow and the toil of the hand, that carries many a man to high position in later life.

Would that there be passed a law making three months of farm life mandatory every year for the growing boy. It would build a race of hardy, nature-loving people.

FROM EAGLE ROCK

EAGLE ROCK, Jan. 23.—Undernourished children are being well cared for at the Central school, where a cafeteria is being conducted under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher association. Recently the building in which the meals are prepared was remodeled at an expense of $700, it is reported. The cafeteria now cares for 200 children daily, states Mrs. A. E. Reiter, and the average cost of a child's lunch is twenty cents.

The children carry their trays to tables placed in the school yard, where they eat their meals when the weather is fine. On wet or cold days the trays are brought to the class rooms. In order to carry out the main idea for which this cafeteria was started, these children who are on the "undernourished list" are supplied with cookies and milk or milk only, depending on the child.

This is in addition to the regular noon luncheon, and children who have not had a proper breakfast, or, in some instances, no morning meal whatever, due sometimes to disinclination on the part of the child for breakfast and sometimes to home conditions where there is not time for taking of a meal before starting for school, may have the benefit of a nourishing food at the time when it is most needed.

The monthly dinner of the Professional and Business Women's club was held last night at the Black Cat tea rooms, 1722 Colorado boulevard. Dr. Mary LeClere acted as hospitality chairman. The program that followed was held at the Congregational church.

Open night was observed last night at the women's club when the Eagle Rock Community Players presented "The Bishop's Candlestick." The play was presided by the following cast, under the direction of Elgie Lowry Fischer: Mrs. Redman, Miss Isabelle Hollister, Carter Moore and J. LeClere.

A mistake of one-half cent a mile run by London omnibuses would cost the company $800,000 a year.

ADD SIXTEEN MEMBERS TO TRAFFIC COMMISSION

STUDENT BODY ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

Ellsworth de Parcq Chosen President; Balloting Is Heavy at Schools

Ellsworth de Parcq, popular Glendale Union high school student, and member of Glendale's Southern California championship football team, was elected president of the high school student body as a result of the spirited balloting yesterday, held at Broadway and Harvard High. De Parcq finished with a majority of twenty-nine ballots over Mary Jo Phillips.

The election was held in the room rooms, and all the voting was completed by 12:15 o'clock, but the complicated tallying of the 1500 votes required almost three hours. These rooms were kept secret, and many students tried to discover them, but in vain. The official announcement of the returns will be given in today's Explosion.

The position of yell leader went to Art Cornelius, who acted in that capacity last semester. He received a landslide of votes, carrying his office by a majority of almost 800 ballots.

Complete Returns
 Elmer Muff nosed out Bud Elliott for secretary of boys' athletics. Another race, that for editor of The Explosion, went to Walton Andrews, who had just sixteen more votes than Dewey McCourt, who carried Harvard

LOCAL DEN OF LIONS HOLD CHARTER NIGHT

Deputy District Governor Jack Riley Makes Presentation; Gala Event Is Held at Oakmont Club

Charter night of the Glendale den of Lions, held last night at the Oakmont Country club, was on the proportions of a state convention. There were 360 guests served at the banquet, including Lions and Lionesses from dens all up and down the Southern California coast. Seldom has anything on a similar scale been seen in Glendale. It was a monstrous carnival of good fellowship.

President Clifford A. Williams of the Lions club of Pasadena, sponsoring den, presided. The charter, a beautiful scroll wrapped in purple silk and tied with a gold ribbon, the colors of Lionism, was presented to President W. B. Kelly of the local den by Deputy District Governor Jack Riley.

The San Diego den had opened its cage and let out twenty-eight roaring Lions. All through the hilarious ceremonies attendant upon "feeding the animals," their voices rang through the jungle, calling upon fellow Lions to visit their city for the sixth annual convention of the Fourth district, May 26, 27 and 28. Last year this convention was held at Sacramento. The Fourth district comprises California, Nevada and the Hawaiian Islands. In presenting the charter, Deputy District Governor Riley was acting for Fred Johns of Sacramento, governor of the district.

Address by Mayor
 The program opened with the singing of "America," after which Rev. Charles M. Calderwood of the First Congregational church offered the invocation.

When the last course had been served—orange brick ice cream with a vivid purple "L" in the center of each slab—President W. B. Kelly of the Glendale den presented Toastmaster Clifford A. Williams, who introduced Mayor

Spencer Robinson of Glendale. The mayor delivered a brief address of welcome. Similar addresses were then given by D. H. Smith, president of the Chamber of Commerce; Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, president of the Tuesday Afternoon club; Frank L. Fox, president of the Kiwanis club; William Baker, president of the Exchange club; J. Herbert Smith, president of the Rotary club, and Dr. H. R. Boyer, president of the Optimist club.

Toastmaster Williams then called upon representatives from the score of dens represented at the great gathering. Among those responding were: Bert Leslie of Whittier, president of the officers' association of the Fourth district; Earl Neumeyer of Huntington Park, vice-president of the officers' association; George Hart of Long Beach, Glenn Atwood of Upland, Doc Adams of Ontario; William Evans of Covina, Doc Billingswell of Riverside, Jack Hart of Gardena, Lee Moody of Pasadena, A. H. Bess of Santa Monica, Charles Brannan of Venice, Walter Goodfellow of Los Angeles, Al Egler of Sawtelle, Jack Lamb of Anaheim and Joseph Moore of Pasadena. Jack Riley then made the presented

Evening News Charter Night Extra! Wow!

"Extra! Extra!" rang out the familiar cry last night at the Charter Night banquet of the Glendale Lions' club, held at the Oakmont Country clubhouse, and tall, man-size newsmen in trim tuxedos passed rapidly through the throng of 360 diners, distributing copies of The Glendale Evening News, special Charter Night edition.

Visiting Lions and Lionesses read this big twenty-page local paper in surprise. They had not realized, in many cases, that Glendale has a daily newspaper of such proportions. Under an eight-column line on the front page they read a two-column headline announcing a full and detailed account of the banquet, together with a one-column cut of President W. B. Kelly of the local den of Lions.

Then, turning over to page 7, they found a complete four-page section devoted exclusively to Lions and Lionism, and containing pictures of members. The buzz of excitement and interest created by this journalistic "coup" did not die down for a half hour, and the rustle of papers punctuated the remainder of the banquet.

Club Woman's Original Poem Registers Hit

Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, president of the Tuesday Afternoon club, first brought laughs, then turned the audience into a serious vein of thought, as she read the following lines last night, before the Charter Night banquet gathering of the Lions club of Glendale, at the Oakmont Country club:

Now many, many years ago, when I was young and ten,
 My fondest wish was just to be within a lion's den.
 But little did I ever dream that Nineteen-twenty-five
 Would see me on the small hold of a door that opens wide
 Wherein the Lions gambol in great and jovous glee,
 Inviting all the lambs to play within their boundary.

We like the things they stand for, liberty, intelligence,
 And the safety of our nation, which can only come with peace.
 This peace must come within our hearts, forget our brothers' sin,
 Then lambs will play with lions and all nations be akin.

MEMORIAL TO ALL VETS IS PLANNED

American Legion Post Offers Suitable Site; Call Meeting Feb. 5

Delegates from twelve service organizations of the city met last night and set in motion the movement to build a memorial to all veterans of all wars and take Glendale from the small list of Southern California cities not so endowed.

It is proposed to erect a commodious, typically Southern California-type, memorial building, suitable and ample to house all the patriotic service societies of the city, centralizing and developing their activities. Not only is the building designed to be a credit to the city, but of great utility as well, for it will be suitable for conventions and large entertainments of all kinds.

Legion Offers Site
 The delegate from Glendale post, No. 127, American Legion, offered the Legion's two-acre lot at Mountain and Campbell streets, free of cost, and stated in so doing that acceptance of this location would give the memorial a magnificent site of unsurpassed natural beauty and panoramic view; also that the building could be in the center of a beautiful miniature park, convenient to car lines and almost exactly centrally located, considering the city geographically.

This offer was well received by the delegates, who also unanimously endorsed the idea of making this great plan absolutely a 100 per cent Glendale project, not only from the standpoint of civic welfare, but that every single part of the memorial should be of Glendale material and labor from foundation to roof.

Assurances of support from all sides were freely offered, and a further consideration of plans and procedure will be made at the next meeting of the delegates, which will start at 8 o'clock Thursday night, February 5, at the American Legion hall, 610 East Broadway.

CALL MEETING OF ADVISORY COMMITTEE

City Councilmen to Discuss Final Plans for Sewer On January 28

The City Council will meet with the sewer advisory committee on Wednesday night, January 28, at the city hall, to discuss approval of the final plans and specifications for installing sewer mains and interceptors in the city of Glendale. No official record of this meeting appears in the minutes of the council, as the action was informal, taken yesterday at the close of the afternoon session. The plans and specifications as submitted by Burns, McDonnell & Smith, sewer engineers retained by the city, involve the expenditure of some hundreds of thousands of dollars, and the council feels it advisable to consult with the sewer committee it created last year, before taking any definite action, declared members after the meeting.

Crossing Hearing
 The council instructed the city attorney to take steps toward obtaining a hearing before the State Railroad commission to re-establish the Gardena avenue crossing of the Pacific Electric tracks. The city attorney was instructed to draw a contract with the Glendale Humane society, renewing for a period of twelve months the present agreement, whereby it maintains kennels for small animals.

The chief of police was authorized to install a flood light at Brand boulevard and San Fernando road, and to install an electric bell at Brand boulevard and Broadway. The city of Glendale was granted a sixty-day extension on the Glendale avenue ornamental street lighting job, and was also granted a sixty-day extension on the installation of water pipe on Adams street between Colorado boulevard and Palmer avenue.

The council authorized that

GOVERNOR TO ATTEND 'Y' BANQUET

Sixth Annual 'Fathers' and Sons' Glendale Affair Feb. 9 Assured

Governor Friend W. Richardson of California will be present at the sixth annual 'Fathers' and Sons' banquet of the Glendale Y. M. C. A. and will give the main address. Assurance that the governor will accept an invitation extended through Assemblyman Frank C. Weller, to attend on February 9, was contained in a telegram to Secretary Rex C. Kelley of the "Y" today. It read:

"Governor has agreed to date of February 9. This is contingent on nothing unusual happening to prevent his appearance."

"FRANK C. WELLER."
 With Governor Richardson assured as their speaker, Glendale Hi-Y boys, under whose auspices the "Fathers and Sons" banquet will be given, will complete final plans for the affair by tomorrow. The banquet will be held in the basement of the Glendale Presbyterian church. Robert Hatch, Hi-Y president, will preside as toastmaster.

600 Reservations
 Tickets for the banquet will be placed on sale shortly, reservations being restricted to 600. No one will be admitted at the door without a ticket, Secretary Kelley announced. This will be in order to avoid confusion such as arose last year when several hundred more persons attended the dinner than had been planned on.

David P. Black, district president of the Y. M. C. A., wired a note of appreciation to Governor Richardson and Assemblyman Weller today as follows:
 "Fathers and sons of Glendale are grateful for your acceptance of the invitation to be present at their banquet."

"DAVID P. BLACK."

The United States is the only large country whose exports are greater than before the war.

REORGANIZATION IS MADE AT MEETING

Municipal Expert Offers to Aid Local Body in Solving Problems Here; Name Sub-Committees Soon

By unanimous vote, the special committee on appointments decided late yesterday afternoon that the Glendale Citizens' Traffic commission should become a self-constituted body and that the number of its membership should be increased to twenty-five.

Following this decision, the special committee proceeded to appoint sixteen citizens to serve with the present nine on the commission under the new status.

These along with members of the original commission appointed by the City Council—M. Walters, chairman; M. B. Towman, secretary; Cameron D. Thom, W. F. Yeo, H. Kuhn, Alex Mitchell, Robert Adams, Stephen S. Packer, and A. P. Priest—will compose the new traffic body which will operate in a manner similar to that of the Los Angeles Traffic commission, a self-constituted body without any definite connection with the city government.

Separate Body
 The action deprives the City Council of its technical control of the Glendale Traffic commission. The original commission, appointed by the council, was strictly a part of the city administration. At the same time the commission will now embody nearly three times as many members as heretofore.

The committee on appointments in whose hands the naming of new members was placed at a meeting a week ago, included Chairman Walters of the traffic body; President D. H. Smith of the Chamber of Commerce; President C. J. Hatz of the Merchants' association; Chief of Police John D. Fraser; President Lyman P. Clark of the Glendale Motor Car Dealers' association, and M. B. Towman, representative of the Auto club, secretary. These six were instructed to appoint the additional members after it had been voted to increase the size of the commission and make it self-constituted.

RELIGION IS NOT—

A thing to be believed but a way of living.
An attitude of body but an attitude of heart.
A creed to be written but a character to be attained.
An organization to belong to but an ideal to be realized.
A set of opinions but an interpretation of facts.
A system coming down from Heaven but an aspiration coming up from humanity.

BUSINESS MEN IN GOVERNMENT

We have always been very fearful that big business might become unduly interested in the affairs of our government, and it is not best for the country that the financial interests should dictate our national policies any more than any other class or group of citizens. But when we go so far as to oppose men for Congress or other government posts on the ground that they are wealthy and have been successful in commerce or industry we are making a grave mistake. Men who have the qualities that make for success in any undertaking are the very ones that we should press into public service.

"The Nation's Business" observes that the United States might well follow the example of England in drafting our ablest business men for government positions. This journal declares that if men like Edison, Ford, Rockefeller, Schwab, Morgan and a dozen others were British subjects, every one of them would have a seat in Parliament and their sons would also be expected to do public duty as legislators, mayors or magistrates, because their private means would release them from actual business. While we look upon big business and industry as enemies of statesmanship, England regards them as allies. Many of the men who have done England loyal and distinguished service have been in commerce. Sir Robert Peel was a cotton manufacturer, the Gladstones were merchants, the Chamberlains made hardware, Sir Campbell-Bannerman was in the dry goods business, Bonar Law is a ship owner, Lord Cromer was a banker, Sir Eric Geddes was a railroad manager, Stanley Baldwin and Sir Robert Horne are iron magnates.

The advantage of the British system, according to "The Nation's Business," is as follows: "No question affecting trade can arise on which the voice of the traders affected by it is not heard. And this, after all, is of immense advantage to the nation. In the event, let us say, of a coal strike, it is an immense advantage for Parliament to be able to proceed to a policy of conciliation without having to summon witnesses before some committee which has never seen a coal mine. The House of Commons will always listen even to a bad speaker when he is talking about what he knows; and such a member, though obscure, usually catches the eye of the speaker and receives recognition. He is expected to be informative rather than rhetorical. Britain thus mistrusts the merely theoretical politician. She does not like to act unless she has the facts stated by men who have to deal daily with the facts."

THE HOME OWNER

The advantages of owning a home have been enumerated so often that they are well known, although the man who is careless or fearful of the responsibility attached to buying a house often tries to fool himself with the fallacy that it is cheaper to pay rent than to own a home.

In these days of high rent one could easily pay all the high taxes and assessments levied upon property and still have a goodly sum left over for repairs, with the yearly rent money. But if the cost in dollars and cents was all that is to be considered, discussion of the matter would be unnecessary.

There can be no feeling of permanency about a rented house. Here today, gone tomorrow is the feeling engendered by living in a house owned by some other one. And even though a family does occupy a rented house for a long interval of time, the real home feeling is absent.

The greatest drawback to living in a rented place is that it is unfair to children. A company of men were exchanging childhood reminiscences not long ago, when one of them confessed that the greatest sorrow of his life was the fact that he could not look back on any place or house and call it home. His parents were the kind of people who moved often and so deprived their children of a background for their childhood. This man felt that he had missed something in life, and he was right.

Many women have the faculty of making rented houses look homelike, but, even so, there is a longing that can be satisfied only by moving into one's own home, no matter how simple and humble that home may be.

And, as has been repeated many times, the home owner is a better citizen. As a property owner he takes some interest in the neighborhood and in the community that he otherwise would not. So, every home-owner is an asset to the community, in the way of improving the quality of citizenship.

There is a vast difference between a shelter and a home. Glendale is a city of real homes, but there should be more of them. Everything seems favorable now for the renter to become a home-owner.

ROAD BUILDING

Civilization always follows the trail blazed by the pioneers. One of the things that has given impetus to the advance of our civilization is the rapid growth of the means of communication. National and international as well as local progress depends upon this. James J. Hill once said, and we must agree with him, that in the past history of this country the railway, next after the Christian religion and the public school, has been the largest single contributing factor to the welfare and happiness of the people.

The railroads followed the trails of the covered wagon, and now the railroads are being supplemented by air routes and boulevards. Records are being made in transoceanic travel, both on the sea and in the air. An air trail has been blazed around the world. Rapid methods of communication are bringing the nations closer together and in this many see a hope of world peace.

But it is very important, also, to have rapid and easy communication within the bounds of our own state. California is famed for the length and the excellence of her highways, an asset which we cannot afford to surrender. The increasing number of motor cars, trucks and buses creates a constant need for repairs and for new roads, all of which costs money. California must have the roads. Our taxes must not be increased. What can our state legislature make out of that?

If you suffer with offitis and need a course of treatment, try the golf course.

When a student is hungry for knowledge it is hard for him to get it from a professor who is hungry for beefsteak.

BOY, PAGE THE CROSS-WORD PUZZLE CHAMP!

Home for Ex-Kings

By DR. FRANK CRANE

News has recently come that the estate of Wood Norton, in England, has been purchased to be used as a home for ex-kings.

To many this will come as a great relief as its walls are fragrant with all the romance of exile splendor.

Society is gradually getting rid of kings, but there is a certain sentiment in treating well those who remind us of the past.

At Wood Norton there came to shelter the Duke of Orleans, head of the House of Bourbon, King of France, if his claims had been recognized.

The estate has priceless exterior fittings, including the beautiful wrought iron gates which once adorned the Royal Palace at Versailles, and which, torn from their surroundings, might have given magnificence to the home of some war profiteer.

In this age when democracy has risen like a giant over the world, it is well to preserve, if only as a relic, some tangible evidence of those wonderful days that are past.

Here at Wood Norton, the Princess Louise of Orleans was married to Prince Charles of Bourbon. Every reigning house in Europe was represented except Germany.

The Duke of Orleans was a figure, tall, with carefully brushed beard, not easily forgotten. He was strangely handsome and usually wore a light grey frock coat and a hat of the latest model.

The name of the purchaser of Wood Norton has not been revealed, but there is a reason to believe that the old Bourbon home has fallen into the hands of an admirer of France.

If Chequers has been given to the nation as a home for premiers, Wood Norton may well be preserved as a home for royal exiles.

England has sheltered Anarchists, like the Prince Kropotkin. Why not monarchs whose only fault may be that they do not fit in to the social evolution of the age?

The Best of Advice

By CLARK KINNARD

Every one knows what it is to start a piece of work, either intellectual or muscular, feeling "stale." And everybody knows what it is to "warm up" to his job. This process of warming up gets particularly striking in the phenomenon known as "second wind." On usual occasions we make a practice of stopping an occupation as soon as we meet the first effective layer (so to call it) of fatigue. That amount of fatigue is an obstruction on this side of which our usual life is cast.

But if an unusual necessity forces us to press onward, a surprising thing occurs. The fatigue gets worse up to a certain point, when gradually or suddenly it passes away, and we are fresher than before. We have suddenly tapped a new level of energy.

For many years William James mused on the phenomenon of the second wind. Then he wrote: "A third and a fourth 'wind' may supervene."

"Mental activity shows the phenomenon as well as physical, and in exceptional cases we may find, beyond the extremity of fatigue—distress, amounts of ease and power that we never dreamed awake. Habitually not taxed at all, because habitually we never push through the obstruction, never pass those early critical points of fatigue."

"It is evident that our organism has stored-up reserves of energy that are ordinarily not called upon; deeper and deeper strata of combustible or explosive material, discontinuously arranged, but ready for use by any one who probes so deep, and repairing themselves by rest as well as do the superficial strata."

"Most of us continue our living unnecessarily near the surface."

The busiest man needs no more hours of rest than the idler.

Some years ago a psychologist kept three young men awake for four days and nights. When his observations on them were finished, the subjects were permitted to sleep themselves out. All awoke from this sleep completely refreshed, but the one who took long to restore himself from his long vigil only slept one-third more time than was regular with him.

The man who energizes below his normal maximum falls by just so much to profit by his chance at life.

Keep "warmed up."

Today's Poem

NIGHTFALL IN DORDRECHT
The mill goes tolling slowly round
With steady and solemn creak—
And my little one hears in the kindly sound

The voice of the old mill speak.
While round and round those big white wings

Grimly and ghost-like creep,
My little one hears that old mill
sing:

"Sleep, little tulip, sleep!"

The sails are reefed and the nets are drawn.

And over his pot of beer
The fisher against the morrow's dawn

Lustily maketh cheer.
He mocks at the winds that caper along,

From the far-off clam'rous
deep;
But we, we love their lullaby song.
Or "Sleep, little tulip, sleep!"

Old dog Fritz in slumber sound
Grooms on the stony mart!
To-morrow how proudly he'll trot you round

Hit to the new milk-cart!
And you shall help me blanket
the kine

And fold the gentle sheep,
And set the herring-a-soak in brine,—

And now, little tulip, sleep!

A Dream—one comes to blanket
the eyes

That wearily droop and sink;
While the old mill buffets the frowning skies,

And scolds at the stars that blink.

Over your face the misty wings
Of that beautiful Dream—one sweep,

And rocking your cradle, she softly
sings

"Sleep, little tulip, sleep!"
—Engene Field.

YESTERDAY'S PUZZLE ANSWERED

Horoscope

Kindly stars rule this day, according to astrology. Venus and Saturn are both in benefic aspect, while Mars has adverse influence.

Women should come into their own under this way, which gives the feminine attributes unusual power.

In business and social relations women should be able to dictate while this configuration prevails.

It is a time for progress that does not ignore all the old traditions that are helpful.

Reactionary influences again are discoverable as likely to gain steadily in affairs of state, business and social customs.

The pendulum of thoughts which has swung far toward what is called modern standards is to go back to all that has been proved trustworthy, but old ideas that retard mental growth will be discarded.

Saturn gives good cheer to labor and appears to promise a year of much activity.

While the world will be busier than ever before, there is likely to be a problem of unemployment that reaches through the summer months in certain parts of the country.

Clubs and organizations may suffer from a lack of cohesion this winter, when dissensions and differences of opinion may be prevalent.

Individualism is to be strongly developed from this time on, for the seers declare that the standardization of human nature has reached its furthest point.

According to ancient lore, this should be a lucky day for engaging men employees, and, by this sign, a fortunate time for seeking positions.

To travel by land and obtain the best conditions it is said to be well to choose the increase of the moon, while for sea voyages the decrease of the moon is supposed to be more favorable.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a happy year, but they should keep an eye on financial matters.

Children born on this day may be careless and inclined to indulge too much in dreams. These subjects of Aquarius may be mentally quick, talented and altogether clever, but inclined to worry over trifles.

HOW TO SOLVE PUZZLE

The words start in the numbered squares and run either across or down. Only one letter is placed in each white square. If the proper words are found each combination of letters in the white squares will form words. The key to the puzzle—the first word—is given in the drawing. Below are keys to the other words.

(RUNNING ACROSS)
Word 1. A fruit the man in the picture is selling.

Word 3. A tropical fruit.

Word 6. The farmer hay while the sun shone.

Word 7. What all things we eat are called. Plural.

(RUNNING DOWN)
Word 2. The most common vegetable.

Word 4. One of the words in this sentence. "All that I am I owe to my mother."

Word 5. A boy's nickname.

BROADENED CULTURE
The Curtis Institute of Music, recently established in Philadelphia, aims to teach its students not merely to be pianists, violinists, or singers but to know music and be well informed on all the sister arts and in all parallel studies that go with those arts. The musician must be interested in the cultural importance of mankind and, therefore, in addition to music must be interested in languages, ethics, and philosophy.

Local Den of Lions Hold Charter Night

sensation address, saying in part: "Lions and lion-tamers, I feel deeply the importance of this occasion and the honor District Governor Fred Johns has conferred in allowing me to present the charter to the Glendale den and escort them into Lions' International."

He read a telegram from General Secretary Melvin Jones, at international headquarters in Chicago, calling attention to the honor accorded Glendale by granting a charter to the local den of Lions.

"That honor," he concluded, "is bestowed only when the intention is to render unselfish service."

President Accepts
In accepting the charter on behalf of the Lions' club of Glendale, President W. B. Kelly declared it had been the endeavor of the organizers to select men who stood high in the business and professional life of the city, and who honored their state and their country. Then, calling upon the officers and members of the local den to rise, he said to Deputy District Governor Riley as he took the charter:

"We will try our best to achieve such things as will carry this club and this city to a higher standard. We further pledge ourselves to carry on the principles of our slogan, 'Liberty, intelligence, our nation's safety,' and will ever strive to champion the causes of education and enlightenment."

Dale Park, of the Los Angeles den, delivered the address of the night, outlining the principles of Lionism.

Stresses Service
"Organizations, like men, must have principles, or fail," said. "Few principles last, but one that has stood the test of war and peace is service. This is the principle back of Lionism. You can never have a League of Nations until you have a league of men. Service clubs today are the greatest forum in the world, where the fetters of selfishness are broken down and men brought closer together in all nations."

"We are planting the seeds today of unselfish thought, for tomorrow's reaping. Men rise from their Gethsemanes and nations rise from their Waterloo. Lionism will lead men back to the knowledge that neither success nor happiness can be bought with wealth."

Mr. Park spoke of true friendship, as contrasted with "fair weather" friendship, urging that help be extended when help is needed, and not condolences after it is too late. "Better give flowers to the living than to the dead," was his thought.

"I want to impress upon you Lions of Glendale a wonderful opportunity," he concluded. "Cherish the Lions club. Kindle in your hearts the ideal of service. Remember the Boy Scout ideal, to let no sun ever set without performing some good deed, without thought of reward. He who gives and serves is a true Lion."

The speaking program was followed by a musical half-hour under the direction of Raul Pereira. There were piano solos by Mrs. Eva Christ, cello solos by Herbert Riley and vocal solos by Miss Tilda Rohr, contralto.

During the progress of the banquet, music was furnished by Harold Korn's orchestra, and later this jazzful musical aggregation furnished snappy music for dancing, which was enjoyed until a late hour. This orchestra comprises Harold Korn, leader, violin; Lee Brann, drummer; Hartman Angst, tuba; Charles Links, banjo; J. Haynes and H. Smith, saxophones; Mrs. C. Albert Le Legue, vocalist, and Mrs. Bernice Brainer at the piano.

Charter Members
The charter presented to the Glendale den of Lions last night by Deputy District Governor Jack Riley contains the names of the following twenty-five members: W. B. Kelly, A. R. Holland, John Swearingin, Dr. Norman C. Paine, George L. Kaeding, Raul Pereira, F. E. Woods, V. V. Naudain, W. S. Ingram, B. A. Mason, E. S. Beggs, Dr. W. B. Walker, H. J. Orson, H. A. Michel, A. H. Mayne, Paul B. Scoles, Arthur L. Munger, P. H. Hubbard, F. M. Brock, F. L. Fay, Charles M. Woodward, A. J. Brown, J. M. Wilson, A. J. Van Wie, E. J. Vaughn.

Since the completion of the charter membership, the following eight members have been added, bringing the total membership at the present time to thirty-three: S. S. Beran, Dr. J. E. Eckles, J. R. Grey, F. L. Hanna, Albert D. Pearce, A. D. Hadley, L. D. McKee, Stuart T. Todd.

The Charter Night committee, which was largely responsible for the outstanding success of last night's affair comprised Charles M. Woodward, Raul Pereira, W. B. Kelly, Paul B. Scoles, S. S. Beran, A. R. Holland, F. L. Fay, F. M. Brock and A. J. Van Wie.

Officers of Den
The officers of the Glendale den of Lions are W. B. Kelly, president; Dr. N. C. Paine, first vice-president; George L. Kaeding, second vice-president; A. R. Holland, secretary; F. L. Fay, treasurer; Paul B. Scoles, lion tamer, and A. M. Mayne, tall twister. These comprise the executive committee.

The chairman of standing committees are as follows: Membership, George L. Kaeding; finance, Dr. N. C. Paine; ways and means, A. J. Brown; civics, E. S. Beggs; Educational, B. A. Mason; welfare, Dr. J. E. Eckles; fellowship, Paul B. Scoles; publicity, W. S. Ingram.

The following are among the out-of-town guests who were present last night: Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ignatius; J. W. Downs; Charles W. Bowman, Huntington Park; Bob Tate; Reba Copeland; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Douglass, Huntington Park; Isidore Settel, Sawtelle; Meyer

When News of Spring Comes "On the Air"

One of the most fascinating things about a new season is the new fashions it sponsors. This Spring, especially, it's interesting to see the many distinctive and novel trends that are revealed in frocks, three-piece costumes, ensemble suits and graceful wraps. So versatile is the mode that every woman may achieve individuality, yet be up to the minute in style.

"Les Habits Ensembles"

And now Spring steps forth to dictate to her band of smart followers what to wear to be smartest. Ranking high in this list is the Ensemble costume for the tailored modes, sports and even more formal wear. We have the sensible but very smart type for the business woman in black or dark blue, set off with a dash of brighter color. And our camel's hair twill in its natural shade makes a very useful sport costume, especially when the coat is made so that it can be worn separately.

ANSWERS TO MOTHERS

CRUMBING TEETH
"Dear Doctor: The first months of my pregnancy I felt fine, but now my teeth are crumbling, my bones ache and I have headaches. Only last week I paid my dentist my semi-annual visit, and my teeth were apparently all fine. Will you please advise me?"—Mrs. H.

By the time this letter appears you will have had your baby, and I am running it only because it will be of help to some other mothers. In response to your request and self-addressed, stamped envelope, our instructions on diet during pregnancy and nursing were sent you immediately from the office, and I do hope you received some aid from them.

You evidently were not under the care of an obstetrician. You should have been and should have visited him at least every month during the first five or six months, often during the next two months and once a week or so during the last month.

There is no doubt that your diet was not supplying sufficient lime for the bones of your baby, and as Nature does in these cases, she was calling upon your own bones and teeth for the supply.

You should have been having from the start, a quart of milk, or at least three glasses a day, liberal amounts of fruits and vegetables, especially the green leaf vegetables, whole grain cereals and breads and some high protein food such as cottage cheese, nuts and eggs.

I have recently written on the inadvisability and danger of eating so much that an abnormal gain in weight results during this period. Fifteen to 20 pounds increase is enough for the normal weight woman, and if she is overweight she should reduce. BUT the foods supplying the mineral elements and protein and vitamins should not be omitted or the results may be as they were in your case.

THIN MOTHER AND THIN CHILDREN

"Dear Doctor Peters: I am enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope and ten cents in stamps for which please send me your pamphlet on gaining (spelled with a capital G.)"

"I am five feet, five and one-half inches tall and weigh 97 pounds. My neck and shoulders are so thin I positively look like a toothpick with wings on my back."

"My children, who range in age from six to 17, have the same tendency to prominent shoulder blades. Is there any hope of helping that trouble if taken in hand now? They are healthy children but terribly thin.

"I read your articles in our paper with a great deal of interest and want to help my children. If I can do much for myself. We have already added plenty of milk to our other foods and I think the younger child shows a little improvement this week.—Mrs. H."

There is not much doubt, Mrs. H., that the reason your whole family is thin is that you are not eating enough of the right foods. The children have the same eating habits as the parents for children are mimics.

You will all show improvement soon, Mrs. H. Are you taking as many quarts of milk as there are members in your family? It is not an expensive food even when it is most expensive, and its value is so great as a body builder it should be the first food to be bought. Use a lot of egg yolks, nuts and oatmeal also. You know the value of green leaf vegetables and fruits in the diet.

You all should have rest periods, lying down during the day, and be out of doors a good deal in the sunlight. Exercise—hanging on the hanging bars, dumbbells and other exercises especially directed toward the chest and trunk—are good helps to correct the posture. Better have health examinations to be sure there are not other causes for your thinness besides inadequate diets. Let us know how you get along.

Tomorrow—Answers to Correspondents.

My Dear Followers:—When sending for material which we offer you please remember to enclose a stamped envelope bearing your full name and address. The pamphlet on reducing and gaining is the only one for which you must enclose four cents in stamps extra. Address your letters to me in care of this paper. Make them as brief as possible, not over 200 words, and type or write them legibly with ink. Please sign your name as evidence of good faith—we will not use it in any way. Remember it is impossible for me to diagnose for you or to answer you personally. I appreciate very much the beautiful letters you send me and regret it is impossible to give you individual advice. The questions you ask will be answered in the column as soon as possible; if they are of general interest. Don't forget the s.a.c. if you expect me to send you the information I have offered.

LUXURIOUS BATHS

There are all sorts of things you can do to a bath to make it pleasant and luxurious. First of all, make it a daily habit so you'll miss it when you can't take it. Secondly, fill the tub up with plenty of water of either a soothing warmth or a refreshing and stimulating coolness, whichever you like best, and indulge in a lot of bath "frills."

These are suggestions: A shower—built into a three sided alcove if you happen to be planning your house and can afford it—or built over your regular tub if you can't install a shower cabinet. Or if you can't afford even this, a rubber hose with a spray nozzle, so you can hose yourself all over. This serves the same purpose and is almost as nice.

Perfumed salt baths: Buy a lot of sea salt in bags. I used to pay 25 cents for a large bag that lasted ages. If you've a big bath salt jar, fill it up with these big chunks of salt, and pour over a little cologne mixed with powdered rouge. This makes a delicate pink colored bath salt. The rouge disappears into the bath-water so you'll never notice it.

Oatmeal baths: These are good for the skin too. You pour a big handful of oatmeal into a bag of cheesecloth, throw into the tub, and squeeze and squeeze as the water runs in. It makes the water milky. Both these baths are extra cleansing and make the skin fine and white.

Here's Sarah Bernhardt's bath water: ½ pint of alcohol mixed with 2 ounces spirits of camphor, 2 ounces spirits of ammonia, 5 ounces of sea salt and enough boiling water to make a quart. This, so it is said, was massaged after her bath. It is both stimulating and astringent.

Plain washing soda softens hard water.

Laura May: You can tint the stray gray hairs with henna so they do not show. This is easily done without affecting the natural shade of the hair. If you care to do this and desire information concerning some I will be glad to mail it to you. When requesting mailed replies, please include a stamped, self-addressed envelope for forwarding.

CHAFING DISH RECIPES

TOMORROW'S MENU

Breakfast
Cereal Cooked with Dates
Omelet Toast
Coffee
Luncheon
Baked Beans Catsup
Fruit Salad
Rolls Cocoa
Dinner
Tomato Soup
Pork Chops
Potatoes Lima Beans
Apple Sauce
Lettuce Salad
Mince Pie Coffee

The chafing dish never wanes in popularity. Here are some recipes which my Reader Friends have asked for:

Deviled Shrimps: Open one can of shrimps and remove the fish from the can. Let it stand one hour in fresh air before preparing as follows: Melt four tablespoons of butter in the upper part of your chafing dish and in this fry two tablespoons of minced raw onion. After cooking five minutes add one cupful of the more solid parts of canned tomatoes and cook fifteen minutes longer. Season with a drop of Worcestershire sauce, salt and pepper to suit individual liking, and turn the shrimp into the hot mixture. Serve when thoroughly heated through.

Hot Sardines: Drain one can of sardines from their liquor and scrape off their skin. Fry them in the chafing dish in four or five tablespoons of butter, seasoning with one teaspoon of salt a pinch of mustard and one tablespoon of lemon juice. Cook till the fish are hot, turning them over once. Serve them on hot toast.

Corn Dabs: Put one can of corn into a bowl and stir into it the beaten yolks of two eggs; also add one-half teaspoon of salt, a pinch of pepper, one teaspoon of butter (melted) and five level tablespoons of flour. Mix well, then fold in the two egg-whites stiffly whipped. Use this batter very much as you would pancake batter, dropping it by teaspoonfuls into hot bacon fat in your chafing dish and turning each little "dab" over when it is nicely brown on one side. Serve hot. These dabs are delicious.

Chicken-Pepper Savory: For this you can use either two cups of dried left-over cooked chicken, or the canned boned chicken cut small with gelatine bits removed. Begin by cutting two green sweet peppers in half, removing the seeds, then boiling the halves in salted water to cover for ten minutes (this removes the strong taste from the peppers). Now drain and mince the peppers; add the diced chicken and you are ready to use the chafing dish. In giving a chafing dish party it is considered correct to have such foods as these already prepared for cooking in bowls or dishes on the chafing dish tray. (The preparing is previously done in the kitchen.) Begin by melting three tablespoons of butter in the chafing dish and thickening this with two tablespoons of flour; let cook for just a moment, then add one cupful of clear canned soup (or soup stock), one cupful of thin cream, one-half teaspoon of salt, and let boil four minutes before also adding the chicken-pepper mixture. Serve on rounds of toast.

Missionary Meet

"Mormonism" was the subject discussed at the monthly meeting of the Home Missionary society of Tropic Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Glenn Porter, 336 West Salem street. Mrs. Hebbart was the leader for the afternoon, and led the discussion. Mrs. S. E. Brown, who attended the recent meeting of the Presbytery, held in the Immanuel Presbyterian church, Los Angeles, reported on the meeting. Members present who had lived in Utah gave brief talks on the subject. Mrs. Hall, secretary, presided at the meeting and appointed a nominating committee to report at the annual praise service, to be held next month. Election of officers will be held at the next meeting. Light refreshments were served.

Spanish Luncheon

Mrs. H. M. Doll of 727 South Louise street was hostess at luncheon yesterday at the Casa Verdugo Spanish cafe, 101 Mountain street. The table was decorated with pink and white sweetpeas. A Spanish luncheon was served. The guests were members of the semi-monthly card club and included the following members: Mesdames Herman Nelson, J. Chapin, Mary O'Brien, Peter L. Ferry, Ed M. Ferry, Chas. A. Rudel, Jesse Smith, Carrie Schmitt, M. J. Brennan, Miss Nell Quinn, and a special guest, Mrs. Paul Machtoff. Five-hundred was played after the luncheon. Mrs. Machtoff winning first prize for high score and Mrs. Mary O'Brien, second.

At Gratiot's Home

Mrs. Louis Gratiot of 912 Osceola avenue entertained members of the Jolly Workers club in her home Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in sewing after which refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Mary Ellsworth, of Butte, Montana. Guests were Miss Beatrice Ostrom, of North Dakota, Miss Lucille Gratiot and Mrs. Mary Ellsworth, of Butte, Montana. Club members present were Mrs. A. T. Winchell, of Hollywood, Mrs. H. T. Sweet and Mrs. R. C. Francis. The club will meet next Wednesday with Mrs. R. C. Francis at 1020 Tyler street.

Live Cole Class

Live Cole class members will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Miller at 1625 Campus road, Eagle Rock. Harley B. Yakel, president of the class will preside and the new constitution and bylaws will be adopted. Meetings of the class are held the third Friday of each month.

Birthday Party

Mrs. John Zahlbruckner of 313 West Lomita avenue was hostess recently at a birthday party, celebrating the eleventh birthday of her daughter, Ella. Decorations were Valentine colors and favors. On the birthday table a large bouquet formed the centerpiece. Before Ella's place was a lovely birthday cake. Each one present received a basket of candy. During the afternoon games were played, prizes were given. Edna Harvey entertained with a toe dance. Assisting Mrs. Zahlbruckner were her daughter, Mrs. B. G. Lilly of Beckley, W. Va., and Mrs. Edward Robinson. Little guests were Clifford D. Colburn, Eileen Champion, Norman B. Parker, Kathryn Cornett, Billy Lauderdale, Virginia Smith, Eugene Baldwin, Edna L. Harvey, Carl Johnston, Charles Rudel, Helen Robertson, Virginia Cornett, Erma Willey, Julie Hofstetter, Dorothy L. Parker, Virginia Harwood, Jeanette Harwood, Jane Thompson, Jack Bunney.

Glen Eyrle chapter, O. E. S., will hold initiation tonight in the Masonic temple on South Brand boulevard. Mae Warrick, worthy matron, will preside.

Ed Tessier, 409 South Central avenue, left Glendale today for Montreal, Can., where he will spend several weeks on business.

LODGE IS ASSURED BY ATWATER MASONS

Initial Meeting Held Last Night When
Twenty-five Attend; Plan Session
For Next Friday Night

Twenty-five Masons representing many lodges from different states met last night and laid plans for an Atwater Masonic lodge. J. E. Noble, 3343 Madera avenue, was elected temporary chairman, Clayton S. Decker was made temporary secretary.

The Masons decided on a committee on organization, consisting of Fred Chapman, chairman; Fred McMullin and G. M. Fitting. This committee will work out plans for the lodge and report at the next meeting.

Ask Residential Zone

A letter bearing the name of the Atwater Community Improvement association and advocating that 400 acres of land adjacent to the Glendale industrial district on the west side of the Southern Pacific tracks and north of Los Feliz road, be zoned for a residential district, is in the hands of the Los Angeles City Council. The recommendation that the territory will be considered by the council along with a petition to that effect from the Park Avenue Improvement association and signed by virtually all persons now living in the tract.

While improvement bodies south and west of Glendale are advocating this zoning civic organizations in Glendale itself are violently opposing any such move. Industrial committees of the Chamber of Commerce, under Lloyd H. Wilson and the Glendale Realty board, headed by William L. Truitt, appeared before the Los Angeles Planning commission yesterday and asked that the property be placed in the industrial zone. They pointed out that Glendale is striving for industries and that the city's only handicap is the limited extent of its industrial trackage. The 400 acres on the west side of the Southern Pacific tracks and extending to the river bank are logically a part of the Glendale industrial area, although not actually in the Glendale incorporate limits. The tract in question comprises nearly 25 per cent of the entire acreage available for industries in the vicinity, it was declared. The Glendaleans denied that industries located on the property would become a menace to residents of Atwater, because of smoke and dirt.

"Not only Atwater but likewise many hundred Glendale residences are located near this tract and would suffer were the wrong class of industries brought in. It is the object of the Chamber of Commerce and the Realty board to seek only clean industrial plants which will be objectionable to no one," Mr. Truitt said.

Funeral Services Held

Funeral services for 4-year-old Leonard Lupo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Francisco Lupo, 3461 Atwater avenue, were held this morning at 10 o'clock at the Little Church of the Flowers. Rev. Philip K. Kemp of the Glendale Episcopal church officiated. Interment took place later in Forest Lawn cemetery.

Circulate Petitions

Petition blanks on which are printed copies of the protest against present high rates of the Pacific Electric between Atwater stations and downtown Los Angeles have been received from the printers and are now ready for circulation by captains appointed in different neighborhoods by the Atwater Improvement association. The petition calls upon the State Railroad commission to take immediate action in lowering fares on the electric line to Atwater. Blanks may be procured by anyone desiring to circulate them for signers at the Arthur M. Gilman real estate office Glendale boulevard from Secretary Paul E. Lipscomb of the association.

Reorganization Is Made at Meeting

full co-operation by these officials." Mr. Walters also announced that an offer of Miller McClintock and other traffic experts who helped draw up the new Los Angeles traffic ordinance, to render their services gratis to the Glendale commission will be accepted. A conference with these experts will be arranged in the near future, at which time knotty problems will be given thorough consideration and the traffic men asked to assist in working them out.

Chief's Statement
Chief John D. Fraser of the Glendale police department brands as "absolute falsehoods" statements appearing in Los Angeles papers to the effect that he was opposed to the formation of a traffic commission in Glendale. No reflection is cast by Chief Fraser against any article on this subject appearing in The Glendale Evening News.

"I heartily approved of the plan but believed, as I still believe, that a commission of twenty-five is too large," he says. "Furthermore, I felt that better results could be secured by having this commission appointed by the Chamber of Commerce, rather than as a separate organization, because the local chamber, with 700 members, is the city's biggest clearing house of civic affairs and would have more weight in making recommendations to the City Council for enactment of any ordinances along these lines."

Makes Motion
"Three out of five of the members of the committee appointed to select sixteen additional members to serve with the nine existing members of the Glendale Traffic commission are of this opinion: D. H. Smith, C. J. Hatz and myself."

The other two members are Lyman P. Clark and M. Walters. "I nevertheless decided to carry out the wishes of the general meeting held some days previously at the Egyptian Village cafe," Chief Fraser concludes, "and I personally made the motion that the sixteen additional members be appointed."

DEATHS-FUNERALS

The Wrath To Come

By E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM, Copyright 1924

CHAPTER XXVIII

"An object lesson in proportionate values," he reflected, as he walked down the deck—and then, his little effort at philosophy deserted him. He himself found great events dwarfed by small ones. His heart was pounding against his ribs. He was face to face with Gertrude von Diss!

His first impulse was ludicrously conventional. He hastened to relieve her of the rug she was carrying. Behind her came a maid with coat, pillows and other impediments of travel.

"Gertrude!" he exclaimed, as he stood with the rug upon his arm. "Where have you been?" "Stateroom number eighty-four," she replied. "And I am on my way to that chair, and please don't ask me whether I have been ill. Come and tuck me up as a well-meaning fellow passenger should."

He obeyed at once. The maid assisted his efforts, a deck steward supplemented them. Presently Gertrude declared herself comfortable and her entourage faded away. Grant sat by her side.

"I am going to break orders," he said gently. "I am afraid that you have been ill."

There were hollows in her cheeks. The freshness of her exquisite complexion had departed. Her eyes seemed to have receded. She was thin and fragile.

"Yes," she admitted. "I have been ill. A nervous breakdown accompanied by great weakness of the heart was all that the doctor could find to say about it. I might have helped his diagnosis."

"Don't, Gertrude!" he begged. "My dear man, don't be afraid that I am going to break into reproaches! There is nothing more illogical in the world than the position of the woman who complains of a man because he doesn't care for her. It's no sin of yours that you didn't love me, Grant. It was most certainly no sin of yours that, for a few hours, I made you pretend to. That was entirely my affair—entirely my cunning scheme, which went wrong. Some idiot once wrote that 'love begets love'!"

He thought that with my arms around your neck I could have brought about a sort of transfusion, forced a little of what was in my heart into yours—and you see I couldn't. In the morning I knew. You were very dutiful. Your lips were there for me if I wanted them. Your arms were ready for my body if I had been content to come. You were prepared to take advantage of all the nice and proper little arrangements which the circumstances had placed at my disposal. And of love there was not a scrap. I had made by venture and lost."

"Gertrude, this is terrible," he groaned. "It is terrible because it is the truth," she continued. "We have that much in common, we two. We both love the truth. I have prayed for this moment, that it might come about just as it has done, that these few plain words might be spoken, and that for the rest of our lives, we should know!"

"I was a brute," he muttered. "I tried, Gertrude."

"What a horrible condemnation!" she laughed bitterly. "And so true—so damnably true. You did try. I watched you trying hour by hour. I watched you drink champagne at night. You tried to pretend. It was I who had to make the excuses—because I knew. I who had to pretend not to see your look of relief. You never deceived me for a single moment, Grant. It was I who gambled and lost."

"I am sorry."

"Don't be sorry," she enjoined. "Now, I will tell you something. Notwithstanding the great humiliation through which I have passed, I am glad. I am glad that it all happened. When this pain is lightened, I shall be more glad still. I was restless and unhappy whilst I believed that I could reawaken your love. Now I am every day more rested, more content. And here is the wickedness of me, Grant—I am glad about it. I do not regret for a single moment my experiment. The only regret I have is that I failed."

"You know why?" he ventured. "You were very frank about it," she admitted, "but somehow or other I couldn't believe that you knew, yourself. You are a man of parts, even a little older than your years, and Susan Yeovil, for all her charm, is young. I used my brain upon the matter foolishly—the one thing brain has nothing to do with. Finished, my dear Grant! That rug a little more closely round my left foot, please. And don't imagine for a moment that I am going to

THE GATEWAY

Betty Morrissey, playing in support to Reginald Denny and Laura La Plante in the Universal Jewel, "The Fast Worker," which William A. Seiter directed, and which is now playing today and Saturday at the Gateway theatre, gained her start in pictures through coincidence and in rather a novel way.

She arrived in California with her family eighteen months ago, heading from Brooklyn. On the train westward bound they met a well known screen writer who informed Miss Morrissey that she should try film work. Since she had no such ambition she forgot the idea completely. But the director who was starting "Merry-Go-Round" at Universal City had known the family in Brooklyn. He offered Miss Morrissey a "bit" in "Merry-Go-Round," which she accepted and played commendably.

Then she went the rounds of the studios, and one day while working as an extra in Chaplin's "A Woman of Paris" she was chosen for a "bit." The bit grew until it was the role of Pifi, companion to the chief character.

Following this she played several more roles—then one day she met the screen writer who had suggested her trying film work. They agreed that all good suggestions are usually ignored for a time!

"The Fast Worker," in which she is playing an important role, is an adaptation of George Barr McCutcheon's novel, "The Husbands of Edith." In the cast are Lee Moran, the comedian, Richard Tucker, John Stepping, Margaret Campbell, Mildred Vincent, Clarissa Selwynne, Muriel Frances Dana and a number of other film favorites.

offer you my eternal friendship. About some matters my sentimentalism is not of the sloppy order. There's a jagged edge about our relations and always must be. That's no reason why you shouldn't make the deck steward bring me some of that delicious bouillon."

"Where have you been and where are you going?" Grant asked, as soon as he had ministered to her wants.

"I've been in New Hampshire," she told him, "staying with one of the neglected aunts of my family. A wonderful spot amongst the hills. Incidentally I was ill there."

"And now?"

"Well—I have plans but they

DOBINSON PLAYERS

"Love Laughs," now being presented nightly at the Tuesday Afternoon club theatre by the Dobinson Players, is a sparkling comedy by George D. Parker, combining a delightful love theme with a gripping midnight gem theft mystery. The two elements of this highly successful play are neatly dovetailed by the author and Mary Worth, in the leading feminine role, aptly interprets the character of the romantic heroine. The curtain rises at 8:15 o'clock.

The excellent supporting cast chosen for the production includes Mary Isabelle Alpaugh, Joseph McManus, William H. Stephens, Richard Ehlers, Eugenia Florence, Arthur Lovejoy and Harry J. Glazier.

The story revolves about a nerve specialist who is besought by a love-struck bachelor, who asks to be made sick so that he may be nursed by his inamorata. Propinquity, says the bachelor, will bring about the desired engagement. The doctor finally responds to the request and the ten days' supposed illness is on.

are not concluded. My book, please, and then you can continue that swinging walk of yours. Afterwards pay me the little attentions one fellow passenger may offer to another, if you like. But rest assured that your liberation is complete."

INDIANS IN DANCE Although the native North American Indian dances are rapidly passing, these tribal demonstrations are being preserved as a part of frontier life in some parts of the state of Washington. At Neah Bay, Wash., 1000 Makah and Nootka tribesmen took part in a dancing fete, depicting the progress of the present generation of Indians. Old tribal dances vied with the modern dances as depicted by the Indians.

Radio telephones are used to send stock exchange reports several times each day from the exchange in Amsterdam to nearly 200 banks in Holland.

UNCLE WIGGLY'S ICICLE TEA

Uncle Wiggily stopped at the Hollow Stump School one Friday afternoon, and it happened to be the Story Hour.

"Oh, I'm sure we are all glad Uncle Wiggily has come!" squeaked the Lady Mouse Teacher. "I was going to tell you a story, children, but I'm sure you would much rather hear one from the rabbit gentleman, wouldn't you?"

"We like your stories, Teacher!" grunted Curly Twisttail, like a politician.

"Thank you, little pig boy!" laughed Miss Mouse. "But I am sure Uncle Wiggily can tell you a most jolly story today, can't you?" she asked the bunny.

"I'll try," answered Mr. Longears, his pink nose blushing red. So he told the animal boys and girls a story about how, once in a while, a bad giant tried to catch a little Dwarf. But the Dwarf was a clever chap, and said to the Giant:

"Before you take me away, you must show me how strong you are. Can you carry ten million tree leaves on your back?"

"Surely I can," boasted the Giant. "Put the ten million tree leaves in a bag, and I will carry them and you, too." But the little Dwarf was smart and said:

"Oh, I don't want you to carry the ten million leaves at once, just a leaf at a time. Now pick up that leaf," and he pointed to one on the ground, "and carry it over the brook."

"Poo! That is easy!" laughed the Giant. So he picked up the tree leaf and ran with it to the brook.

"Now take another leaf," said the Dwarf. And so he kept the Giant busy, running back and forth, carrying one leaf at a time. Until when the big chap picked up the leaf numbered 27,857 he was so tired he dropped down in his tracks and couldn't move.

"So you see," said Uncle Wiggily to the animal children in school, "that though the Giant could easily have carried a million leaves all at once in a bag, when the Dwarf made him pick up one at a time it was too much for the bad chap."

"That was a jolly fine story," said the Lady Mouse.

"Yes, and I see some jolly fine ears!" suddenly cried a harsh voice, and into the school popped the Bob Cat.

"Do you mean my ears?" asked Uncle Wiggily, sadly like.

"I do!" snarled the Bob Cat. "I'm going to nibble them."

The bunny looked at the stove in the middle of the school. On top of the stove a kettle was boiling to moisten the air. Then Uncle Wiggily saw outside on the window sill many cold, glittering icicles.

"Before you nibble my ears," said the bunny to the Bob Cat.

GRADUATION SET AT INTERMEDIATE

Sixty-seven Pupils Wait Diplomas at Glendale Ave. School Saturday

Dr. J. Harold Williams, of the University of California, southern branch, will deliver the main address at the graduation exercises of the Glendale Intermediate school tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium. Norman R. Whytock is principal of the school and Richardson D. White is the city superintendent of schools. Following is the program:

Class march, "March Romaine" (Gounod), "Bohemian Girl" (Balle), school orchestra; "Lassie o' Mine" (Bowles-Walt), "Mammy's Song" (Ware), girls' glee club; presentation of class memorial, "Dream of the Shepherdess" (Labitzky), Oneta L. Brown, Robert E. Clewett, Violins, and Dorothy Beales, piano; address, Dr. J. Harold Williams, University of California, southern branch; "Wishin' and Fishin'" (Mills), "Where the Plag Is Full of Stars" (Mills), Boys' glee club; presentation of diplomas, Eugene H. Learned, member of board of education; class song, words by Dorothy Erskine.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Class Election

Mrs. H. Park Arnold of 1541 Hillcrest drive was hostess yesterday afternoon to members of the R. T. W. class of the First Baptist church, fifty members, and guests being present. Baskets of sweets were used as decorations throughout the rooms of the Arnold home. Mrs. John Snyder had charge of the devotional service and Mrs. J. Ray Bentley, president, directed the business meeting. Reports from committees on work accomplished during the past year were given. New officers were elected and installed by Rev. Ernest E. Ford, pastor of the Baptist church. The new officers elected are: Mrs. J. F. Headlee, president; Mrs. J. F. Headlee, first vice-president; Mrs. G. F. Hobson, second vice-president; Mrs. Bert Marple, secretary; Mrs. W. F. Owens, treasurer. Mrs. Jennie B. Dossie was re-elected member of the class. The program for the afternoon proved very entertaining and included musical readings by Mrs. Booth Evans of Long Beach and a group of songs by little June Perkins. Special guests were Mrs. Booth Evans and her mother, Mrs. Cook, of Long Beach; Mrs. Holmes of Iowa, and Rev. and Mrs. Ernest E. Ford. The next meeting of the class will be held February 26, at the home of Mrs. Jacobs on Dorothy drive. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mesdames Eva Alter, G. H. Hill, Robert Morrow and C. E. Eddings.

Host to Friends

Herman Nelson, Jr., was host last night at an enjoyable party given for a company of his school friends at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Nelson, sr., 641 East Harvard street. Dancing, with music furnished by the Victrola, furnished entertainment for the evening. Miss Virginia Glass and Charles Garland received prizes for the games. Later in the evening a lunch consisting of sandwiches, salad, cake and whipped cream and chocolate, was served by Mrs. Nelson, assisted by her daughter, Miss Edith Mae Nelson. The table was prettily decorated with a bouquet of pink sweetpeas and ferns, with the pink rosebud favor baskets containing candy and nuts at each place. Small valentines were used for placecards. The guests were Misses Katherine Sontag, Virginia Glass, Irene Ewald, Betty Stull, and Francis Willard, Albert Ewald, Charles Garland, Myron Pinkston, Tyler Robinson, Herman Nelson, Jr., and Vincent Nelson.

Plan for Dinner

Plans for a community dinner, February 14, were made yesterday at the meeting of the maids' and young matrons' department of the Tuesday Afternoon club, at the clubhouse. The dinner will be at 7 o'clock at the clubhouse. Reservations must be made before Monday, February 9, with Mrs. William McCurdy. At the regular club luncheon, February 10, Mrs. C. G. Putnam, curator of the maids and young matrons, will have charge of the program, and members of the department will have a special table. Mrs. Elmer Blake is chairman of the club, dance Monday night, January 26. The program yesterday was in charge of Mrs. Manton L. White. Readings were given by Ethelwin Kent and dances by Viola Tone. Mrs. Henrietta Capp continued her talks on home decoration, speaking on the atmosphere of the home.

Auxiliary Meets

Mrs. Harold Mayne, 124 South Everett street, was hostess yesterday to members of the women's auxiliary of the letter carriers' organization. Mrs. Love was assisting hostess. Plans were made for a box social the second Saturday in February, the date of the joint meeting of the letter carriers and the auxiliary. Friday afternoon, January 30, the auxiliary is to meet at the home of Mrs. George Bullock, 730 East Raleigh street. They will have a shower of baby clothing for a needy mother in a local hospital.

Dinner for Choir

Clayton Brost of 1919 Gardena avenue entertained at dinner last night for members of the Young People's choir of the Tropical Presbyterian church. Mrs. Louisa Faldman, aunt of Mr. Brost, and Mrs. L. D. Hyer assisted in entertaining and in the serving of the dinner. Twenty members of the choir were present and a choir rehearsal was held later in the evening.

Dr. and Mrs. James F. Winnard of 457 Riverside drive were guests at a dinner party given by Mrs. N. E. Winnard at 320 N. Golden street, Los Angeles, last night in honor of Lawrence Winnard of Manitou, Colo., who is visiting with relatives here. Other relatives of the Winnard family from Los Angeles were also present. Mrs. N. E. Winnard is Dr. Winnard's mother, and Lawrence Winnard is his brother.

Mrs. E. G. Morrison who recently sold her large La Crescenta estate to the Bullock interests in Los Angeles left Glendale today, over the Union Pacific, for New York City, where she will spend the remainder of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gorman and daughter, Marjorie, of 627 East Chestnut street, left yesterday for a week's visit at Santa Rosa, in Sonoma county.

Mrs. F. S. Card of La Crescenta represented the Tuesday Afternoon club yesterday at the reciprocity day at the Tujunga Women's club.

Mrs. C. M. Sparr of 234 South Jackson street had as dinner guests last night Mrs. Florence Dobinson, Mary Isabel Alpaugh and W. S. Sparr.

College Days Recalled At Richardson Party

Reminiscences of student days at the University of California were enjoyed last night by a group of guests entertained by John H. Richardson of 116 West Dryden street. The guests are all from New York City, and the affair arranged last night by Mr. Richardson proved a most happy reunion for them while sojourning in California. Bridge was played, Dan Wintership holding high score, and receiving a leather covered set of Robert Browning. A buffet supper was served. Guests were Albert Laitlaw, writer; Austin Westall, Grant Milborne, James Rodman, Amos Wintership, Dan Wintership, Preston Pope, Asa Tilly, James Vallander, Maurice de Bunsen, Andrew McKinnon.

Ascot Course to Open With New Management

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 23.—Ascot speedway after a period of several weeks' inactivity, will re-open under new management, Sunday. Nine events have been carded for the re-opening meet, two for motorcycles, six for automobiles and a fifteen-minute auto polo game. Popular prices will prevail, a new schedule of 75 cents for general admission and $1 for seats in the main grandstand, have been adopted. Children will be admitted to the grandstand for 50 cents.

The opening event of the day will start at 2:30 p. m. Manager Johnny White, new executive, says he expects the largest field ever starting at Ascot in a track meet, to face the flag in Sunday's events.

CREAM FOR CATARRH OPENS UP NOSTRILS

Tells How To Get Quick Relief from Head-Colds. It's Splendid!

In one minute your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, blowing, headache, dryness. No struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh will be gone.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly.

It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed-up with a cold or nasty catarrh—Relief comes so quickly.—Advertisement.

Sixty Pretty Girls In Musical Comedy

Sixty of the prettiest girls in Southern California compose the chorus of the musical comedy, "Hello Dearly," being staged January 29 and 30 by the Glendale chapter, Order of De Molay, under the direction of Lucien Denni, composer and musician, and Gwynne Denni, dramatic coach. Every girl is a resident of Glendale or Eagle Rock.

Several specialty acts are included in the program, among these being a Russian dance by Miss Lois Naudin, Miss Viola Yorba will sing Mr. Denni's latest song, "The Mystery of Night," Miss Valera Trimmer will present "They Put Me in the Chorus, But I Know I'm Better Than That."

Tickets are now on sale by members of the cast and members of the Glendale De Molay. The dates are January 29 and 30 and the place is the Broadway High school.

Little Theatre Class Effects Organization

An organization of the members of the Little Theatre Players who are members of the newly-formed drama study and play-producing class was effected in a meeting in the Glendale Avenue schoolhouse last evening, with officers as follows: Manager, R. Ernest Tucker; secretary, Mrs. Charles H. Gowan; treasurer, Paul Morgan; chairman of play selection committee, Mrs. Max Lynn Green. Other members of the class are Mrs. Dorothy Morton Hastings, Mrs. Tucker, Mrs. T. C. Young, Mrs. H. C. Vandewater and C. E. Hamilton.

The class is in charge of Gabriel Ravanello, of Pasadena, famous drama producer, recently come to this district from New York City. Later plays will be presented under the auspices of the Little Theatre Players, with Mr. Ravanello as director. All persons interested in joining the class may make arrangements through Mr. Tucker, 150 South Brand boulevard. Classes meet every Tuesday evening.

KIWANIANS MARK TENTH BIRTHDAY

History of Order; Harding Memorial Explained By Speaker at Club

The history and growth of Kiwanis International from the first meeting, held on January 21, 1915, in Detroit, to the present time, were traced by O. L. Ferris of Los Angeles, lieutenant governor of the district, and past president of the Los Angeles club, in an address at the Glendale Kiwanis club today noon at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse.

Although there were only a few members in the first club, he said, there are more than 1300 clubs chartered now, with a membership in excess of 92,000. This week is being observed by all clubs as the tenth anniversary of the organization.

The Harding memorial, sponsored by the Kiwanis, will be erected in Stanley park, Vancouver, British Columbia, near the spot where the late president made his last public address, the speaker said. He explained the type and construction of the proposed monument and read the inscription to appear on it, a part of that final address.

Members Aid Fund

The members of the club donated 50 cents each toward the Harding memorial fund. Similar donations will be made by other clubs throughout the United States and Canada.

William Bode, general chairman of the Hallo-Kiwanis party, gave his final report, showing the entire cost of the annual event did not take any more from the general fund of the club, but turned in a small amount. He listed the receipts and expenditures for the party.

Tells About Singers

A. L. Baird spoke on the Rhondda Welsh Male singers, who will appear at the Broadway High school on Monday night. Herman Nelson, chairman of the budget committee, reported the proposed expenditures for 1925 would amount to $3365. The committee recommended the yearly dues be raised to $25 a year. A. L. Ferguson moved an amendment to the bylaws, confirming the change.

The attendance prize, donated by Park Arnold, was won by Bert Perry. The silent contest was donated by T. L. Totman, Rex Kelley, reported the party for Strickland Home, planned for tonight, had been postponed until a future date.

The club will take care of fifty boys from the Strickland Home at the Y. M. C. A. "Father and Son" banquet in February 3, following a talk by Rex Kelley. The boys will also be entertained by the club at a noon luncheon, it was decided.

Union Pacific Head In Inspection of Glendale

Carl R. Gray, president of the Union Pacific railroad, made a tour of inspection of Union Pacific properties in Glendale late yesterday, in company with E. E. Calvin, vice-president of the road, and F. H. Knickerbocker, general manager, with offices at Los Angeles. President Gray and Vice-President Calvin are in Southern California from Omaha, Neb.

"I have never seen anything like it," he said, commenting on Glendale's growth, "but then you are always doing impossible things out here in California. Likewise I want to thank the people of Glendale for the splendid way in which they have patronized the local ticket office of the Union Pacific during the first year of its existence."

Rhondda Singers to Appear Next Monday

Presented by Glendale Kiwanis, the Rhondda Welsh Male singers are to give a program Monday night at Broadway High school. Their repertoire includes solos, duets, trios, quartets, double quartets, choruses and glees.

This organization, which is composed of sixteen singers, is directed by Prof. Tom Morgan, with Prof. Emlyn Jones as accompanist. It is said that every member is an artist. A press comment on their work says:

"The outstanding feature of the Rhondda singers is that each member of the company possesses exceptional talent. Their program combines excellent voices, well-chosen selections, is gracious in the matter of encores, splendid direction and accompaniment."

India's last monsoon, or rainy season, was so favorable that activity in practically every line of industry is expected.

ADVISORY BOARD FOR FOREST LAWN

Bank President, Poet Among Officers Named to Guide Memorial

Charles F. Stern, president, First National bank, Los Angeles, John Steven McGroarty, author of the Mission Play, prominent journalist and poet, and Marius de Brabant, chairman of the art commission of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce were elected members of the advisory board of Forest Lawn Memorial park at the meeting of that board held in the new administration building at Forest Lawn yesterday afternoon. Other members of this board are: W. Irving Hollingsworth, Dr. R. B. von Kleinsmied, Judge Benjamin F. Bledsoe, Dr. John Willis Baer and Bernal H. Dyas, with Hubert L. Eaton, president of American Security and Fidelity Co., as chairman.

Hearty accord with the plans of the board they have now joined was expressed on behalf of the new members by Mr. McGroarty who said that they welcomed the opportunity to work with men who held such high standards of public service and who were so thoroughly committed to the plan of making the final resting place of loved ones a beautiful park where amid masterly landscaping and floral planting, would be placed many of the world's finest art productions.

Claiming that its great mausoleum tied with steel and concrete into the rock of the hill against which it is built and constructed after the plans of the Campo Santo in Genoa, provides the most enduring and modern crypt and vault facilities to be found in the west, McGroarty pointed out that the provision of service for those who have passed beyond is only equalled by the desire of the board that Forest Lawn shall also prove of very real service to the living.

Finest Designs
To that end, he explained, the architecture of the great mausoleum-columbarium of the Little Church of the Flowers and of the new administration building has been chosen to represent the finest in design of the periods indicated and the interiors enriched with the best available examples of paintings, statuary, art glass and furnishings.

It is in the furtherance of this same plan, according to members of the newly constituted board, that many notable examples of the works of American and European artists in bronze and marble are being suitably placed with regard to the landscaping and planting of the 220 acres which comprise the surrounding Memorial park. By this work further beautified by art objects chosen to typify the highest instincts in men and the beauty and sweetness of life, it is the aim it was said, of the board that Forest Lawn as a whole shall be developed as one of the striking beauty spots of the Southland, contributing a high educational and inspirational value to the community through the art treasures which it is acquiring for public enjoyment.

Yearly Gas Range Sale At Housekeeping Shop

In honor of the annual gas range sale, held each January by the Good Housekeeping shop, 140 South Brand boulevard, Manager George Schoberlin has arranged for a special radio concert scheduled to begin at 5 o'clock, and continue until 9, tomorrow.

Expect Heavy Travel During Coming Season

Indications of heavy travel to California during the coming spring and summer may exceed all previous seasons, according to C. A. Redmond, Union Pacific agent in Glendale. Excursion rates over the Union Pacific go into effect May 15. Mr. Redmond said. These reduced rates from the east remain in force until September 30, with return limits to October 31. The Shrine convention at Los Angeles, Elks at Portland, Knights Templar at Seattle and a number of other important lodge gatherings will serve to bring many thousands west. Hundreds of tourists from Montana, Utah and Idaho will arrive in Los Angeles at noon Monday on the annual mid-winter excursion trains from those states. They will remain in Southern California one month, according to the terms of their excursion tickets.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS

Routine business occupied the attention of the Union High school board members at their meeting at the Broadway High school last night. The meeting was short, and several matters of importance were carried over to the next regular meeting on Thursday, February 12. Albert D. Pearce presided at the meeting.

NO LOSS BY FIRE

A leaking gas pipe at the home of S. L. Martinez, 1023 South Mariposa street, brought apparatus from Station 1 of the Glendale fire department to the scene at 5:35 o'clock yesterday afternoon. No damage was done, reports Chief A. H. Lankford, in charge.

BIRTHS

A son was born today, Friday, January 23, 1925, at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Isleib of 900 East Lomita street.

The "Big Bank" is here in Glendale

FOR the convenience of our customers, the Security Trust & Savings Bank has established many points of contact. In the operation of the Bank, all points of contact with the customers are EQUAL.

The whole bank, with all its resources, with its experience and its safety, with its settled policy of seeking every safe investment of its funds that will serve the community—that Bank is just as much present here in Glendale as it is at Fifth and Spring, Los Angeles.

The CONVENIENCE of the Branch is all for the benefit of the customers. The Bank solves the problem, in its internal organization, of extending itself to every locality where its name appears.

Legally, a "branch"; actually, a powerful Glendale institution.

BETTER BUILT HOMES—Not Merely Houses

Finest flooring used in Pacific Homes

There are many different varieties of flooring, particularly the oak grades. Quite frequently it is impossible to secure first choice flooring from the ordinary retail sources. But in Pacific Homes only the finest grade of oak flooring is used. It is thoroughly kiln dried and is carefully sorted and standardized. We lay the hardwood flooring over clean, flat sub-flooring. When oak flooring is not specified we furnish 1x4 tongued and grooved vertical grain fir flooring which has been thoroughly dry-kilned and will not warp.
Ask to see our many new plans of 4, 5, and 6-room homes and request estimates. No obligation incurred. Booklet of plans free.

To Our Customers And People of Glendale

About February 1st, 1925, the GLENDALE FEED & FUEL CO., of 106 South Glendale Avenue and the VALLEY SUPPLY CO., of 139 North Maryland, will be consolidated into one business at 208-214 North Howard street (the second lot north of Wilson street) and will be known as

Glendale Feed & Fuel- Valley Supply Co.

The Telephone Number Will Be GLENDALE 537

The new firm will be owned and operated by same personnel as the old firms, and it is planned by this consolidation to be able to give better values and increased service.

Trusting that we will see you at our new location and that we may serve you further and thanking you for your past patronage, we are, sincerely,

GLENDALE FEED & FUEL CO. VALLEY SUPPLY CO.

R. M. Brown,
V. M. Hollister.

The present places of the two firms will immediately be remodeled into stores. For space call at our new location.

Clearance Sale on At Fisher Variety Store

Featured at Fisher's Variety store, 212 East Broadway, today and Saturday, is a special clearance sale of draperies and yard goods. One of the big store windows has been devoted exclusively to the display of these goods, and a large variety of cretonnes, art silk marquisette, colored curtain net, and many other fabrics suitable for curtains and drapes are being shown.
"This is an event," Mr. Fisher says, "that only the advantage of fortunate buying will allow us to offer at such extremely low prices, and one which we feel Glendale housewives will be sure to appreciate."

LEAVES HOSPITAL

Ed M. Lee of 345 North Belmont avenue, who underwent an operation yesterday morning at the Glendale Research hospital for the removal of his tonsils, was taken to his home this morning.

Glendalians Attend Bible Class Meeting

Central Christian church members attended the quarterly meeting of the Federated Men's Bible class of Christian churches of Southern California, held last night at Ontario. Eight hundred men were present for the meeting. The meeting of the house of delegates council was held yesterday afternoon, followed by an indoor baseball game and parade in the streets of Ontario. A banquet was served at 6:30 o'clock and the main address was given by Rev. Henry Paul Packard of Des Moines, Iowa, general evangelist of Christian churches. Attending the meeting were: Rev. Clifford A. Cole, Floyd Mercer, T. W. Partin, H. R. Stevenson, F. B. Matice, W. T. Sherman, J. F. Hall, Frank M. Andrews, H. A. Lathrop, Dr. A. H. Rowley, J. R. Maxwell and E. R. Morford.

Nearly one-third of the vessels now being launched are equipped with oil burners.

J. C. Sherer Will Not Run for City Treasurer

over 16,000 registered voters in Glendale at the present time, this means that over 160 names will be needed.
Petitions will be available in the office of the city clerk March 5, and not until then may they be lawfully circulated. They must be filed not later than March 25, in order to be checked by the Los Angeles county registrar of voters. The city clerk will not verify these petitions, inasmuch as he is a candidate for office.
Last Day to Register
March 14 will be the last day to register, in order to be eligible to vote at the election of April 14. Mr. Van Wie points out. Those who have registered since January 1, 1924, will be eligible without registering again.
This election is not to be confused with the special school bond election of February 10, which is to decide whether or not $2,400,000 should be spent for elementary and high school expansion. Registration for this special election closed January 10, Mr. Van Wie states.

Vaneless windmills are now in use.

Local Optimists Hosts To Hollywood Brothers

Thirty members of Hollywood Optimist club led by President L. H. Freeman dined with Glendale Optimists at the Masonic temple at noon today. President H. R. Boyer of the local club turned the gavel over to President Freeman, who introduced members of the Hollywood club in a number of stunts, including orchestral numbers by an aggregation under Art Kemp, formerly of Glendale. Glendale took the prize in a song-fest. The award was a small tin loving cup, offered by Hollywood.
Harold Brewster, Glendale high school teacher, entertained with a comical address on the "Growing Menace—The Pedestrian." G. R. Postle and Leo Oleson won attendance prizes. A challenge for a golf tournament between Hollywood and Glendale was accepted by Peter Hanson on the part of the local club. Secretary Oleson challenged the Film City club members to a bowling tournament. President Spahr of the Bay Cities Optimist club was a guest and spoke. The Hollywood members were welcomed by Dr. H. Boyer.

Toy Symphony Feature Big Success at Sing

The new toy symphony chart, whereby members of the audience holding toy instruments may join with the regular orchestra for a burlesque number, occasioned much amusement at the third of the Community Sing series, held in the Harvard high school last night. The good attendance, which marked the two preceding sings, was maintained last evening.
Other special numbers were given by Mrs. Milton E. Canfield whose amusing readings in Negro, French and Irish dialects were well received. Musical selections also were offered by the players from the Symphony orchestra. This group included the following-named: W. A. Stoll, Henry Rafael, violin; Marie Bachmann piano; W. V. Anderson, flute; Lloyd Knapp, clarinet. The community sing next week will be in the Central Avenue schoolhouse with the Parent-Teacher organization of that district joining with Glendale Community service as hosts.

TAKE SALTS IF RHEUMATISM IS BOTHERING YOU

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Take Salts to Get Rid of Toxic Acid

Rheumatism is no respecter of age, sex, color or rank. If not the most dangerous of human afflictions it is one of the most painful. Those subject to rheumatism should eat no sweets for awhile, dress as warmly as possible, avoid any undue exposure and above all, drink lots of pure water.
Rheumatism is caused by uric acid or body waste matter, and is often generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this poison from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work; they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this toxic acid, which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain, called rheumatism.
At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is helpful to neutralize acidity, remove waste and stimulate the kidneys, thus helping to rid the blood of these rheumatic poisons.
Jad Salts is inexpensive, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism.—Advertisement.
